

Dmitri Swain

January 5 - 28
"Chimera: Mythological & Hybrid Creatures" All Juried Show
Artist Reception: Saturday, January 5, 5-7pm
Submission Date: Thursday, January 3, 10am-4pm

Mythological creatures and fantastic hybrids will stir the imaginations of artists and patrons alike in this exhibit. Featured artist, Dmitri Swain, is from Cannon Beach. He is known for his paintings of hybrid creatures that blend birds, women and plants into lovely beings.

February 1 - 25 "Sacred & Profane: Oregon Collage Artists"

Artist Reception: Saturday, February 2, 5-7pm

Four influential artists who are known for their work in collage will be showcased in this exhibit, Eunice Parsons, Liz Cohn, Grace Sanchez and Cannon Beach artist, Rex Amos. The art of Collage began in 1912 with such influential artists as Braque and Picasso, now we will take a look at where the art form may be headed in the next 100 years in this dynamic exhibition.

Eunice Parsons

Harry Greaver

March 1 - April 1
"The Greaver Family"

Artist Reception: Saturday, March 2, 5-7pm

The art gene is often passed from generation to generation.

This exhibition will showcase the work of one of Cannon Beach's most long standing art families, the Greavers, who have been making art in town for over 30 years. In addition to the wonderful work of both Harry and Hanne Greaver, this show will also feature the detail rich paintings of their son, Peter Greaver and jewelry creations of their grandson, Connor Greaver.

April 6-29 "Verde" All Juried Show

Artist Reception: Saturday, April 6, 5-7pm
Submission Date: Thursday, April 4, 10am-4pm

Artists working in all media are encouraged to explore natural and up-cycled materials in this second annual Green Show: Verde. In addition, artists working in traditional media will explore a green palette. Local artist and jeweler, Ashley Mersereau, will have her up-cycled jewelry line, Roots and Wings Jewelry showcased during the month. A special event tied to Earth Day will be announced. Sponsored by Western Oregon Waste.

Ashley Mersereau

May 3-27 "Richard Rowland Invitational"

Artist Reception: Saturday, May 4, 5-7pm

A pioneer of the Anagama Kiln in the Northwest, Astoria based artist, Richard Rowland will be the featured artist and curator of this show.

Richard Rowland

* Artist at top of page, left to right: Hanne Greaver, Rex Amos, Liz Cohn, Dmitri Swain, & Grace Sanchez

We're located at 1064 S. Hemlock, along with the Bald Eagle Coffee Shop in mid-town

May 31-June 5 "Boats by Noel Thomas"

All Juried Show

Artist Reception:

Saturday, June 1,

5-7pm

Submission Date:

Thursday, May 30,

10-4pm

Astoria painter, Noel Thomas, will be the featured artist this month as well as the curator of the juried show. Noel Thomas is known for his renderings of boats on the Columbia River, which capture essence of the river and vessels that inhabit it.

June 28-July 29

"Observations -

Janet Bland &

Marilyn Joyce"

Artist Reception: Saturday, June 29, 6-8pm

"Look around you...Feel the wind, smell the air. Listen to the birds and watch the sky. Tell me what's happening in the wide world." ~Nancy Farmer, The Sea of Trolls

August 1-September 3 "Print Invitational"

Artist Reception: Saturday, August 3, 6-8pm

Liza Jones will showcase a new group of etchings in this exhibit. In addition, a handful of her printmaking colleagues will be featured as well in this month long exhibit.

September 6-30 "Still Life: A Fundraiser"

Artist Reception: Saturday, September 7, 6-8pm

Local and regional artists will create a still life painting to sell for $125 as a fundraiser to support the Cannon Beach Gallery.

October 4-28 "Autumn Invitational"

Artist Reception: Saturday, October 28,

5-7pm

The Autumn Invitational will represent the best artistic talent the region has to offer in an innovative display. More details to follow

November 2-December 2

"Annual Miniatures Show"

Artist Reception: Saturday,

November 2, 5-7pm

Submission Date: November 1, 10am-4pm

The Annual Miniatures Show is a perennial favorite with artists and art patrons alike. The work of featured mosaic bead artist and painter, Zemula Fleming, is highly sought after and collected.

Zemula Fleming

December 5-31 "Artist Grant Exhibit" and "Volunteers Show"

Artist Reception: Saturday, December 7, 5-7pm

The 2013 recipient of the CBAA Individual Artist Grant, Jessica Sund, will be featured in this winter show. A Cannon Beach Fiber Artist, Sund spent the last year creating a series of garments: specifically Vests, Coats and Capes. In addition, the myriad of talented individuals who make the programs of the CBAA possible through their volunteer efforts will also have their work on display.

Current Gallery Hours:
Thursday-Monday, 10am-4pm
Hours expand to daily in July