

Playing Cards-Liz Cohn

January 7 - 31 "The Green Show"

Artist Reception: Saturday, January 7, 6-8pm

Submission Date: Thursday, January 5, 10am-4pm

An open juried show of Northwest artists, the theme is open to interpretation and can mean anything from the color green to creating "green" art. Sponsored by Western Oregon Waste.

February 4 - 29 "Playing Cards"

Artist Reception: Saturday, February 4, 6-8pm

For 2 years, Liz Cohn has been making art on playing cards most of which were mailed to over 150 artists all over the world for them to alter and add to in any medium. The resulting collection is over 1000 collaborative small works of unique art. This show will highlight her collection and include a juried component in which artists are encouraged to make their own "playing card" (approx. 3.5"x2.5"). The cards do not need to be framed.

March 3 - April 2 "Fruits of Our Labor"

Artist Reception: Saturday, March 3, 6-8pm

In a nod to "Savor Cannon Beach," this invitational show will highlight artwork that is thematically related to growing, preparing and enjoying food. Works will include blown glass cupcakes by John Cook as well as sumptuous oil paintings by Brian Cameron and Suzy Kitman.

Watermelon Slices-Brian Cameron

Artists! The Cannon Beach Gallery no longer charges an application fee for its juried exhibits; we do encourage artists to become members of the Cannon Beach Arts Association.

April 7-30 "Under-18 Regional Art"

Artist Reception: Saturday, April 7, 6-8pm

An amazing show of 130 works by local grade and high school students. Sponsored by Jimmy Onstott.

May 5-30 "Books as Art"

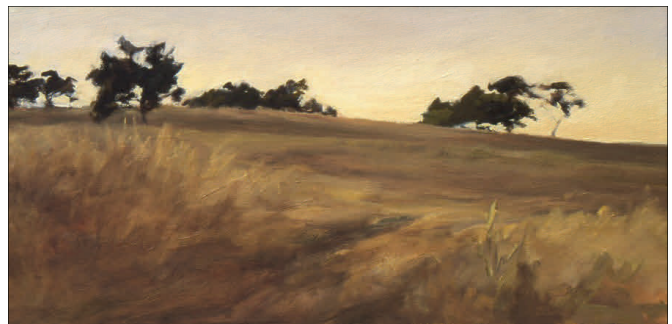

Artist Reception: Saturday, May 5, 6-8pm

Handmade books by Linda Piacentini-Yaple and works by Beth I. Robinson. In addition, 40 regional artists will create an "Altered Book" by transforming discarded old volumes into surprising and new mixed media creations. Sponsored by Terry and Judine Brooks.

June 2-24 "Plein Air and More"

Artist Reception: Saturday, June 23, 6-8pm

Plein Air and More Festival, June 22-24

Broken Landscape at Dusk-Phyllis Trowbridge

Three phenomenal landscape artists, Phyllis Trowbridge, Michael Lorenzini, and Bets Cole will be exhibiting their work for the month as well as participating in the town wide arts celebration known as Plein Air and More. Over the weekend of June 22-24, these artists will set up their easels around town to paint as spectators watch and ask questions.

We're located at 1064 S. Hemlock, along with the Bald Eagle Coffee Shop in mid-town

June 28-July 31 "Artists of Sitka"

Artist Reception: Saturday, June 30, 6-8pm

Located at Cascade Head on the Oregon coast, the Sitka Center offers workshops and residency programs in art and nature. This is an invitational show curated by featured artist Carol Riley and will feature some of the finest artists on the coast, including Frank Boyden.

July 23-July 27 10th Annual Art Camp for Both Children and Adults

Classes for all ages, from toddlers to high school students and adults. Check our website for details as we get closer to the event, or stop by the Gallery. Tuition is $65, $50 for CBAA members.

August 4-Sept 3 "Coastal Flora and Fauna"

Artist Reception: Saturday, August 4, 6-8pm

Cannon Beach is always rated one of the most beautiful beaches in the world, and includes old-growth forestland with its own amazing array of wildlife. An invitational show, artists will present their visions of creatures and chlorophyll of the NW coast. Some of the artists: Sally Lackaff, Liza Jones, Donna Sakamoto Crispin and Barbara Temple-Ayres.

Lotus Tea Pot-Donna Sakamoto Crispin

September 8-October 9 "Rooms With a View"

Artist Reception: Saturday, September 8, 6-8pm

Submission Date: Thursday, September 6, 10am-4pm

A juried show with a classic theme for artists to interpret with their own inventive twists.

October 11-31 "Cannon Beach Photo Review" & October 12-14 Three-Day Event

Artist Reception: Friday, October 12, 6-8pm

An exhibit showcasing photographers from across the country participating in an inaugural event. This show will celebrate photography as an art form. The three-day workshop that starts with the Artist Reception will allow 50 serious photographers to meet and be critiqued by a dozen or more highly regarded professionals, and to have guided opportunities to photograph both well-known and remote areas of Cannon Beach.

November 3-Dec 3 "Miniatures"

Artist Reception:

Saturday,

November 3, 6-8pm

Submission Date: November 1, 10am-4pm

A fun exhibit with the art lover in mind, the Miniatures Show features tiny objects at tiny prices. An annual juried show, this is also CBAA's Stormy Weather Arts exhibit, and has been a signature event for 26 years.

Miniature by Zemula Fleming

December 8-31

"Artist Grant Exhibit" and "Volunteers Show"

Artist Reception:

Saturday,

December 8, 6-8pm

Drenda Duff, our 2011 Artist Grant winner, will create and publish a Cannon Beach

Sea Creatures-Drenda Duff

Activity Book, with art projects for children and adults. Her original art for the book will be shown. Also showing will be 25 works by our invaluable docents and other volunteers.

Gallery winter hours are Thursday through Monday, from 10am-4pm. Summer hours are 7 days a week, from 10am to 5pm.